THRISSUR

The School of Architecture, Government Engineering College Thrissur is all geared up to host 'D360' a three day architecture symposium scheduled from 28th to 30th November, 2014, for academicians and student architects of various colleges in the state. The programme is in conjunction with "THRISSUR-NEXT"; an urban design workshop organised to fulfil the renewal dreams of the old CBD of Thrissur city which includes discussions and presentations of renowned urban designers, planners and architects of national and international repute.

D360 will also include four major design competitions, culturals and informals that add to the extravaganza. At this juncture, School of Architecture, GEC Thrissur, proudly celebrates its Crystal Jubilee as well as the inauguration of the Masters Programme in Urban Planning in the department.

DESIGN EVENTS

---

ARCHIttrick

Mask the light, it's a play of black and white. Play of shadows never fail to mesmerize. Create illusions with random materials on a blank plane. Spread the light, cast the shadows, express your creativity.
